Jack reacher books ranked best to worst

Shameless vet Shanola Hampton will be coming to the rescue of missing persons in the NBC drama pilot Found, our sister site Deadline reports. The project is based on the fact that "in any given year, more than 600,000 people are reported missing in the U.S. More than half that number are people of color that the country seems to forget about," per the official logline. "A public relations specialist (Hampton) — who was once herself one of those forgotten ones — and her crisis management team now make sure there is always someone looking out for the forgotten missing people. But unbeknownst to anyone, this everyday hero is hiding a chilling secret of her own." The pilot was penned by Nkechi Okoro Carroll (All American) and hails from Berlanti Productions. The casting marks Hampton's third NBC pilot in recent years after Night School and Dangerous Moms. She previously starred on Showtime's Shameless as Veronica "V" Fisher for 11 seasons. Ready for some more recent newsy nuggets? Well... * Showtime's Couples Therapy will return for a third season this May. * The 2022 MTV Movie & TV Awards will air live on Sunday, June 5 from Los Angeles' Barker Hangar, while the second annual Movie & TV Awards: Unscripted will take place on Monday, June 6. * Power Book II: Ghost star Mary J. Blige's hit song "Real Love" will be the basis for a new Lifetime movie that the Grammy winner will executive-produce, the cable network announced Wednesday. In the coming-of-age romantic drama, "Kendra sets off on her own for the first time to a college in upstate New York, determined to focus on her studies. But when she meet's her film class partner Ben, she tries her hardest to keep things professional. Despite disapproving parents, financial hardship, and competition for the top spot in class, Kendra and Ben find themselves falling hard for each other and ultimately learn the meaning of real love." * The comedy thriller The Outlaws, from co-creators Stephen Merchant (The Office) and Elgin James (Mayans M.C.), will premiere with all six episodes Friday, April 1 on Prime Video. Watch trailer. * Hulu has unveiled a trailer for the limited series The Girl From Plainville, starring Elle Fanning and premiering with three episodes on Tuesday, March 29: * Apple TV+ has released a trailer for Slow Horses, its espionage drama premiering Friday, April 1 and starring Gary Oldman, Kristin Scott Thomas, Jonathan Pryce, Jack Lowden and Olivia Cooke: Which of today's TVLine Items pique your interest? "Black people tend to be very funny during very dark times. It's, like, in our DNA," Nicole Byer of CBS's Grand Crew shares during TVLine's Shades of Funny roundtable video. And modern times have seldom been as dark as these first years of the pandemic, and evvvvvverything else that has transpired within. "We are very resilient people," attests Gina Yashere of CBS' Bob Hearts Abishola. "We've gone through a lot of cruelty and a lot of hardships, and it didn't break us. Music and humor have been our way of coping and passing on messages — and still creating happiness." "Comedy is a defense mechanism, a survival technique," says W. Kumau Bell (who directed Showtime's We Need to Talk About Cosby). And that survival technique is often best displayed by the Black comedians who perform stand-up. As J.B. Smoove (Prime Video's Phat Tuesdays, HBO's Curb Your Enthusiasm) puts it, "Comedians being honest, they can relate to you and they make it funny. We're therapists on stage, but we're also the patient laying on the couch." In the video above, you can hear more from Byer, Yashere, Bell and Smoove, plus many others including Amanda Seales (everything's gonna be all white), Danielle Pinnock (Ghosts), Ashley Nicole Black (A Black Lady Sketch Show), Phat Tuesdays' Kym Whitley, Deray Davis, Guy Torry and director Reginald Hudlin, Grand Crew creator Phil Augusta Jackson, and Tommy Davidson and Paula Jai Parker (of The Proud Family: Louder and Prouder). Many of those comedians/creators also open up about specific instances when humor helped them overcome a tough time. "We're in the middle of a pandemic and we're also dealing with institutionalized racism," notes Jackson. "I was able to funnel a lot of the frustration, a lot of what I desire out of my friendships, a lot of the things that were helping me get by, and a lot of things I wanted to see into [Grand Crew]." Closing out the lively discussion, we invited everyone to talk about the Black comedians whom they consider to be trailblazers. Press play above to hear praises be sung for Jackie "Moms" Mabley, Richard Pryor, Wanda Sykes, Katt Williams, Issa Rae, Chris Rock, Key & Peele and others. But wait, there's more! In the video below, Seales, Pinnock and others cheer Black Twitter and the other positives of social media.
